Applicants Under 18

You will need your application to be auspiced by an individual who is over 18 and has an active ABN.

The individual auspicing your application should be aware that they will need to enter into a legally binding grant agreement with the Regional Program Administrator.

The individual auspicing your application will be responsible for meeting the obligations set out in the agreement as well as managing, reporting on and acquitting the funding.

You will be required to enter the details of the individual auspicing your application in the Applicant Details section of this form.

Do you have an individual with an ABN who can auspice your application? *

Yes No

Unincorporated Groups

You will need your application to be auspiced by an organisation that meets the following criteria:

- an Australian incorporated organisation or local government organisation
- if required by the Australian Tax Office, be registered for the purposes of GST
- not have any outstanding reports, acquittals or serious breaches relating to any Australian Government funding or funding from a state or territory Regional Program Administrator. A serious breach is one that has resulted in, or warrants, the termination of a grant agreement.

All activities undertaken must have the support and approval of the auspice body.

You and your auspice body should be aware that the auspice body will need to enter into a legally binding grant agreement with the Regional Program Administrator. The auspice body will be responsible for meeting the obligations set out in the agreement as well as managing, reporting on and acquitting the funding.

You will be required to enter the details of your auspicing organisation in the Applicant Details section of this form.

Quick Response Grant Eligibility

Quick Response Grants will fund professional development opportunities for artists and arts workers or small activity opportunities. The program supports immediate need that arises where the activity is unable to be planned for or supported in other funding rounds, for example taking up professional development, skills development or small activity opportunities at short notice.

Have you received a Quick Response Grant in this financial year? *

Yes

No

Will your activity start within 2-12 weeks from the closing date of this round? *

Yes

No

Activities with a critical start date within 2 - 6 weeks from the closing date of this grant round will be prioritised. If your activity starts later than 6 weeks, it may be more competitive in the next round.

Does this activity have an immediate need for funding? *

Yes

No

For example, it has arisen at short notice and there have been no other available streams of funding that you could apply for.

Tell us why you have an immediate need for funding: *

Must be no more than 100 words.

Under clause 5.1 of the Guidelines: The program supports immediate need that arises where activity is unable to be planned for or supported in other funding rounds, for example taking up professional development, skills development or small project opportunities at short notice.

Please upload any evidence that supports the above:

Assessment Criteria

* indicates a required field

Response to the Assessment Criteria

This section asks you to describe how your activity will meet the assessment criteria for the Regional Arts Fund.

Please select and respond to the most relevant example/s for each assessment criteria.

Tips:

- Concise, clear and direct responses are easier to assess than long wordy responses.
- You are not expected to respond to every example - choose only the relevant ones. This may only be one for each criterion. You will have a higher chance of success if you only respond to relevant examples.
- Keep your response size relative to the funding requested. For example, if you are asking for $500 there is no expectation that you will write 250 words for each response. 50-100 will be sufficient.

Impact

If successful, at least one person involved in this project be required to undertake training in the National Child Safety Principles, prior to the funding agreement being signed.

The Australian Human Rights Commission has developed a suite of e-learning modules to help organisations increase their knowledge and understanding of the National Principles and identify steps they need to take as they work towards implementing National Principles for Child Safe Organisations.

There are 11 e-learning modules. They include an introductory module which gives an overview of the development and content of the National Principles, and separate modules on each of the ten National Principles. Each module will take participants around 20 minutes.

The modules are intended to help people working or volunteering in all organisations that engage with children and young people – including organisations of various sizes, across Australia, in all sectors. They provide introductory content as well as links to more detailed resources and practical tools.

These modules are free, and we recommend that you begin completing them now to allow for a quick turnaround should your application be successful.
