Applicants are invited to submit their Expression of Interest in writing, or by uploading a five-minute audio or video recording. Other accessible formats will also be accepted, please contact Regional Arts Australia to discuss alternative submission types. Email rafmanager@regionalarts.com.au or phone (02) 5999 1204

How would you like to submit your Expression of Interest?

- Written responses: Please continue to the next question.
- Audio or video submission: Please review questions 14-17 and provide responses in your submission. Attach the file to your final submission. Then proceed to question 18.

14. Proposal

Tell us about your idea for a fellowship activity. We are looking for proposals that will contribute to the sustainability of your practice. This could mean financial, environmental, or professional sustainability. Activities could include an exchange, residency, professional development opportunity, or creative development in the studio. This activity does not have to be confirmed, we just want to hear your ideas for how you would like to expand or develop your career or creative practice.

Activities should be able to be delivered without relying on additional funding sources. Keep in mind, you cannot use fellowship funds for projects that are already underway, and you cannot use fellowship funds for expenses that are already being funded by another Australian Government program (including the Regional Arts Fund).

What do you propose to do? (max. 300 words)

Enter text here

15. Impact

Tell us about the impact you think this fellowship would have on your practice or career. You should consider assessment criteria 1, 2 and 3 in your response to this question.
